

NÅR MUSLIMER KONVERTERER TIL KRISTENDOMMEN

- hvad er baggrunden, hvad tiltrækker muslimer til kristendommen, og hvilke pastorale udfordringer afstedkommer det?

PROGRAM

9.30-10.00 Ankomst og kaffe

10.00-12.00 Formiddagssessioner med Dr. Duane Miller

- Religious conversion and apostasy in Islamic tradition
- Movements from Islam to Christianity with a focus on Iran

12.00-13.00 Frokost

13.00-15.00 Eftermiddagssessioner med Dr. Duane Miller

- What is attracting people from Islam to Christianity?
- Pastoral challenges faced by Christian converts from Islam

Tilmelding:

Send email til lk@interchurch.dk senest d. 10. november.

Tid og sted:

Århus: Onsdag d. 15. november 2017, Gellerup Kirke, Gudrunsvej 88, 8220 Brabrand

København: Tirsdag d. 14. november, 2017, Nathanaels kirke, Holmbladsgade 19, 2300 København S

Duane Miller received his PhD in Divinity (focus on World Christianity) from the University of Edinburgh. He is author of Living among the Breakage: Contextual Theology-making and ex-Muslim Christians, Arab Evangelicals in Israel, and the forthcoming book, Two Stories of Everything: The Competing Metanarratives of Islam and Christianity. He is lecturer and researcher at large for Muslim-Christian relations through The Christian Institute of Islamic Studies and serves as deacon at the Anglican Cathedral Church of the Redeemer in Madrid. He lives in Madrid with Sharon and their three children, David (13), Amelia (10), and Samantha (6). He is an authority on the history of Protestant missions in the Middle East and religious conversion from Islam to Christianity. His articles and chapters can be found in the publications of Oxford Press, Cambridge Press, Thomas Nelson, and Brill, among others.

